Written by Johnny Angel
Performed by Joker

She grew up on the wrong side of town
She wouldn't let nobody push her around
Out on the streets, you fight for your life
Red lipstick and a switchblade knife

CHORUS

Nobody knows the troubles she's seen
She fights tough, she's gonna get mean
Jane Jane, the Hurricane
A heart of stone, but she feels no pain
Jane Jane, the Hurricane
Cold-blooded love for your life in vain

>From town to town, she's a loner
No way in hell you'll get to know her
Gone with the wind without a trace
She'll wipe the smile right from your face

CHORUS

It's all in vain, Jane
It's all in vain, Jane
Oh yeah!

Jane Jane, the Hurricane
