And when us humans gather us all
And construct from ego
A self truly small
To be made fun of
Our clandestine call
I see the twitch knee-jerk fruition stall
Mull it over abysmal pall
A roll in the clover
Well mull it over
I'm standing in the doorway
And gazing at you
I see the things flit passed that flew
How incontinence can be
When rapidly I come towards thee
In a numb of frenzy
Mull it over
Think in line
What borders on
Conducively fine
Own a way I dodge
With ounce to glow

Each of oppinions they go
And left us all we nude
Renewed our strength embued
It's thievery delight
'Cause I hold you this night
So I shall try to give my all
Reconstructing under fall
Each she'd through
Every year with you
I shall try to be a better me
The one I care to look at and see
Which ever way I knew
