Sometimes you move too slow
Think you see it coming then bang down you go Who's out hunting trouble and trouble was holding your hand
Then you're staring back up at a jealous man

All I want to do is get back to Oh I've made mistakes
The way that we used to be

But I've paid for all the trouble I've made
Alright I want you to know
I went down hard and I came back slow
But I'm on my feet again
And I'm begging you to let me in
I'm begging you to let me in

Here comes Chris with his hundred watt grin Waving his arms and waiting for the fun to begin We're downtown tripping not doing too much
Just weaving our way through the traffic when the sun comes up

Oh I've made a mess
All my life is falling apart
And I know it's just my carelessness
I've got to walk away
Alright I want you to know
I went down hard and I came back slow
But I'm on my feet again

And I'm begging you to let me in
And I'm ashamed of that I can't deny
I'm begging you to let me in
Oh I made you cry
All I want to do is get back to
The way that we used to be

I went down hard and I came back slow
Alright I want you to know
But I'm on my feet again
And I'm begging you to let me in

I'm begging you to let me in I'm begging you to let me in
