Don't you know
That we're out of touch?
Yeah, we fight too much
How'd we ever get so messed up?

Every night, we say the craziest things
You know our words, they once had wings
Now it's all covered up in double-talk and lies
There's a stranger looking back when I look in your eyes

Hey, don't you know
That we're out of touch?
Yeah, we fight too much
How'd we ever get so messed up?

Every night, we say the craziest things
You know our words, they once had wings
Now it's all covered up in double-talk and lies
There's a stranger looking back, when I look in your eyes

I just want to find a heart like mine
I just want to find a heart like mine
A heart like mine, a heart like mine

And you call me a fool
'Cause I still feel the same
You say that your love has changed
Ah, here we go again, yeah

Close your eyes
Tell me what do you see, do you still remember me?
Like some Mexican diplomat, after the fact
Air-brushed from history, swept under the mat

I just want to find a heart like mine
I just want to find a heart like mine
A heart like mine, a heart like mine

As I walk out the door, I step into a dream
The world's quiet and I feel free

But things are never what they seem
'Cause then I hear you call

And I warn myself
Now don't go back, but slow motion attacks
Like some Mexican diplomat, after the fact
Air-brushed from history, swept under the mat

I just want to find a heart like mine
I just want to find a heart like mine
A heart like mine, a heart like mine
