"One Day"

I never been a mess like this before

Coming apart at the seams

I feel like a fugitive

Walking through another man's dreams
I go to bed thinking about caving in

Cursing everything I've done

Wake up lying in a sweat

In a new day's sun
One day
Out of the blue

I'll just walk away

Out of your life
Baby this time we got through it
No alibi

I don't think next time we'll do it
And one day I will
One day I will
One day I will
I'll be set free
You never can tell where the nightmares dwell

People change everyday

I guess it only matters

Whose side you're on anyway
But I remember a time you didn't look so fine

Sure had a different sound

Now when you get in
Honey I don't want to be around
One day

Out of the blue
I'll just walk away

Out of your life

No alibi

Baby this time we got through it

I don't think next time we'll do it
And one day I will

One day I will

One day I will
I'll be set free
Solo
Well everybody watches you
When you walk
And you don't care at all

But I'll be there when

The pieces start to fall
One day

Out of the blue

I'll just walk away

Out of your life

No alibi

Baby this time we got through it
I don't think next time we'll do it
And one day I will
One day I will

One day I will
I'll be set free
