You've got troubles on your mind

Keeps you away from me

There's no sense in denying
And I've cursed myself for the longest time

And now I find I just don't mind
Leave your coat beside the door
Come and lay here

On this blanket on the floor

And we'll throw our candles

In the flames tonight

Set it right try to set it right
(chorus)
When all our tears coming down are gone

And I shed my skin before this evening's done
If we never get the chance

To come back here again

I'll understand you know I'll understand

You know I'll understand
All the spirits of the night
Watch us sleeping here

Beside the firelight

And I'll hold my tongue
Till this moment's gone

Kiss the dawn
Stay to kiss the dawn
(chorus)
