This one's for sadness
And these are for pain
And here are the words
You can't get back again

I'm holdin' a picture
Of you on your lawn
Smilin' like an angel
The fortunate one

Well, it's alright now
People get through this somehow
Alright now
We will keep movin' I know
If you remember 'cause I, I do

When the fever was breaking
I was sweat soaked and frail
I dreamed I was Stephen Truscott
A child in jail

And when I awoke
And I felt your cool breeze
I wept like an ocean
Sweet tears of relief

Well, it's alright now
Alright now
We will keep movin' I know
If you remember 'cause I, I do
