Yeah, I gave you my heart and I gave you my soul
That's not enough, will you want more?
Like the writing on an ancient wall You're a mystery that I'll never solve

Yeah, you're everywhere
Yeah, you're everywhere
Yeah, you're everywhere but you're just not there for me
For me

Well, I've walked along the red canal of Mars I've known kings and king makers, poets, painters and paupers
I've danced, danced on the rings of Saturn Still your pilgrim soul is the only thing that ever mattered

Yeah, you're everywhere
Yeah, you're everywhere
Yeah, you're everywhere but you're just not there for
me
For me, rock it

Yeah, this old world ain't always what it seems Sometimes I feel I'm living in someone else's dream There's a face I know that I've never seen Still a hundred million miles ten thousand years Ain't going to change a thing

Yeah, you're everywhere
Yeah, you're everywhere
Yeah, you're everywhere but you're just not there for me
For me

Yeah, you're everywhere but you're just not there for me
For me
Yeah, you're everywhere but you're just not there for me
