Live, baby life is loud
We'll make it through the filth and the glory
Give more of what you've got
Soak it up then tell your story
For every dream that got away
We found our ordinary way
For every blue sky turning grey
We found imaginary ways
I look at you and where we are
We're human after all
Time, there's no remedy
Just hold the broken parts together
Your touch all that chemistry
Now I'm love's unlikely defender
For every dream that got away
We found our ordinary way
For every blue sky turning grey
We found imaginary ways
I look at you and where we are
We're human after all
It's all right when the day is done
It's all right there's something better
It's all right when the morning comes
It's all right there's nothing better
