Floating on the outside
Covered by the moonlight
Looking at this blue thing
Fallen by the wayside
The years keep on coming
Riding on a moon beam
Having a daydream
Crash the barricades raise the alarm
We've forgotten how to feel
Break the silence shout it out
Call the angels there's a friend in need
Love is not the enemy
Love is not the enemy
Looking at the brightside
Walking on sunshine
Loving this blue thing
Want it in my life
The years keep on coming
We're headed for Venus
No sign of life
Crash the barricades don't be afraid
We've forgotten how to feel
Break the silence shout it out
Call the angels there's a friend in need
Love is not the enemy
Love is not the enemy
Oh can you feel it does anybody care
Oh can you feel it say a little prayer
Oh can you feel it does anybody care
Oh can you feel it say a little prayer
