One thing I remember
I was headed for the door then I felt an anger like never before I guess you had your reasons for makin up your lies but when I saw you later you had tears in your eyes Hey, hey, hey, I'm gonna make it all right now Hey, hey, hey, I'm gonna take it all the way
Stranded, Stranded
Though you left me standing there alone
Stranded, Stranded
I always will believe that life goes on
The next thing I remember I pretended I was strong I asked you to surrender but the words came out wrong
You know I feel mistreated wounded deep within I'll never stand defeated no I'll never give in Nothin can stop me now
