Why should it make a difference
You know better then let yourself be fooled
If it should occur to you
I'll be there waiting patiently

If I could look into your eyes
Keep the things I find
I won't leave a single thing behind

Hitching a ride down the one way street
It's the same wherever we go
Open your eyes and get on you feet
It's the same old charity show

Gazing through my window
Faces that I know I've seen before
And if I was to say to you
I'll be there waiting patiently

If I can make you stay with me
I will bite my time
I won't let you down this time around
Time around
Hitching a ride down the one way street
It's the same wherever we go
Open your eyes and get on you feet
It's the same old charity show

Nothings for certain in times like these
You never know which way the wind blows
Gotta try so hard not to lose yourself
Getting through the family show
