I take the picture
a picture in my hands we have everything all the good times that we have there was a time in our lifes when everything was bright we had love
But there's nothing sacred sacred anymore that's why I need your lovin' oh just like I did before
So by the light in the morning
I'm gonna make my way Not a way not a warning to be a harder way
So by the light in the morning
That's where I'll be Oh darling darling darling just blame it on me I'll be searching time to time again since I lost your lovin' it has never been the same
There was a time in our lifes
When everything was right
we had love
So by the light in the morning
I gonna make my way
not a word, not a warning
to be a harder way
just by the light in the morning
that's where I'll be
blame it on me
So by the light in the morning
to steal your heart away

just by the light in the morning...
