Hey girl, I can feel your heart
We had something goin' on right from the start
When I look at you, I just feel so good

Hear the music breakin' up the ground
Can you feel it? I just love the sound
I'm just lettin' go, just like I should Like I should

There's something goin' on
That's so hard to describe
Well, I can dance the night away
There's nothin' else that I want to do

Yes, I can dance the night away
There's no one else that I want but you
That I want but you
That I want you

Tomorrow never gets in my way
When I feel like dancin' night and day
I just want to get up and never ever get down, down, down

Seems to me, I won't get old
And my heart will never ever get cold
It's so hard to feel bad when you're around
When you're around

There's something goin' on
That's so hard to describe
Well, I can dance the night away
There's nothin' else that I want to do

Yes, I can dance the night away
There's no one else that I want but you
That I want but you

I feel like dancin'
I feel like dancin'

Hey girl, I can feel your heart

We had something goin' on right from the start
When I look at you, I just feel so good, good, good, good

Hear the music breakin' up the ground
Can you feel it? I just love the sound
I'm just lettin' go, just like I should
Just like I should, baby

There's something goin' on
That's so hard to describe
But I can dance the night away
There's nothin' else that I want to do

Yes, I can dance the night away
There's no one else that I want but you, you, you
That I want but you

Dance the night away
