There's a voice out on the wasteland

I've been sailin' 'cross the ocean
With the devil by my side
I've been flyin' 'cross the great blue sky
But there's nowhere to hide

But I've been standin' by the crossroads
I've been lookin' for a clue
I've been prayin' for the human race
There's not a lot I can do, no

I've been waitin' for the warnin'
As we look to the sky, yeah
Now we all seem lost if you ask me why

It's the seventh sign
See the blood red sky tonight
The seventh sign
See the blood red sky

There's a voice out on the wasteland
It says we're runnin' out of time
Where I used to think the world could change
Lord, I must have been blind

I've been cryin' out for mankind
I've been hangin' on to faith
But the comin' of a messenger
Says it's much too late, yeah

We could all come together
And gather all around
What good is war when we all go down

It's the seventh sign
See the blood red sky tonight
The seventh sign
See the blood red sky

I've been waitin' for the warnin'
As we look to the sky, yeah

Now we all seem lost if you ask me why

Oh yeah

The seventh sign
See the blood red sky tonight
The seventh sign

Seventh sign
See the blood red sky tonight
The seventh sign, oh
See the blood red sky
