Said you were ordinary
Would not amount to much
I guess they never knew you
You found the place they couldnt touch
Said you were nothing special
Always kept to yourself
You had to fight your own way
Theres always been touch too much at stake
What you gonna do?
Cause youre just like me
What you gonna do?
Tonight, this is where we go
To find out who we really are
Tonight, this is how we breathe
To put some strength back in our hearts
We start from the dark
Youll never pass for someone
Wholl find a place in life you sough to take that last breath to give away your heart and mind
What you gonna do?
Cause youre just like me
What you gonna do?
Tonight, this is where we go
To find out who we really are
Tonight, this is how we breathe
To put some strength back in our hearts
We start from the dark
Start from the dark
What you gonna do?
Cause youre just like me
What you gonna do?
Tonight, this is where we go
To find out who we really are
Tonight, this is how we breathe
To put some strength back in our hearts

We start from the dark
Start from the dark
