are there years between us?
have you seen me when i didn't see you?
its so good to know that someone can love me as much as i think you do... do i love you?
your a fool if you don't know or maybe i'm so good at hiding even the truth is hidden from you but somehow i doubt that your as smart as i could ever be but still my question remains is our love meant to be?
cause it feels too good to be true

can someone love me so much more than i love myself is this all true?
does love resonate in your heart
like the songs say it does?
i can't even begin to believe my dreams
when they actually come true...
