I don't know what I'm going through
Close my eyes still see you in sight
Everything reminds of you
I could never let you go

I can't hide my feelings at all
I give you love sometimes it's so hard
Without you I know I would fall
'Cause I'd never let you go

I would cry for you
And I'd lie for you
I would lay my life on the line
I can't hide from you
That I'd die for you
But I'd never let you go

What we share keeps me alive
For you there's nothing I would deny
All I know is I want you so
'Cause I'd never let you go

I would cry for you
And I'd lie for you
I would lay my life on the line
I can't hide from you
I'd reach the sky for you
But I'd never let you go
