What's happened to your love?
What's happened to my love?
We've been together for so long
But now the feeling's gone

What's happened to your love?
What's happened to my love?
We've been together for so long
But now the feeling's gone
But now the feeling's gone

Could you give me one more try?
I will never make you cry
Yes, I've made mistakes before
Give your hand let's go for more

Oh baby, you came back again
Your eyes are shining like a flame
I thought I might forget your touch
But now I love you so much

What's happened to your love?
What's happened to my love?
We've been together for so long
But now the feeling's gone

What's happened to your love?
What's happened to my love?
We've been together for so long
But now the feeling's gone
But now the feeling's gone

I do remember your first words
And silence's broken down my heart
I want to dream about sky blue
If I can darling stay with you

Let's walk we did it for the first time
Along the wavy sea shore line
Please smile you always did to me
Oh baby, tell what do you feel?

What's happened to your love?
What's happened to my love?
We've been together for so long
But now the feeling's gone

What's happened to your love?
What's happened to my love?
We've been together for so long
But now the feeling's gone
But now the feeling's gone
