Got tired of being gifted and tormented
Signed, sealed, delivered, then resented
I think I've lost a very nice part of me
And even though I'm only half the man I used to be
It feels good
I'm flying high again
Spinning round and round again
I even like myself again
I'm not exactly sure of what I'm after
But I won't be happy until I get it
I'm either innocent or just plain stupid
What's the betting I'll regret it
But it feels good
Feels like I'm home again
Feeling safe and sound again
I even like myself again
And it feels good
I'm flying high again
Spinning round and round again
I'll never touch the ground again
Feels like I'm swimming in a sea of beauty
Feels like I'm going round the bend
God defend me from my enemies
God defend me from my friends
Cos it feels good
I'm flying high again
Spinning round and round again
I even like myself again
And it feels good (possessed)
I'm coming home again (possessed)
Feeling safe and sound again (possessed)
I'll never touch the ground again (possessed)
Cos
It feels good
