As in a dream, love appeared
Swept me away, make me lose control
Like never before

As in a dream, life touched me
I don't know how I touched the bottom
Of my very soul

Now I know I find the key to my heart
I just hope this isn't a dream
And that you are reality

I admit I fell for you so badly
And I admit you make my senses wild
I know sometimes that I am looking foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be a fool as long as you are mine
Mine, just mine, just mine

It's great to be in love
It makes me touch the sky
A thousand times or more

It's good to admit
That my heart starts to race
When you walk through that door

Now I know you are the key to my heart
I just hope this isn't a dream
And that you'll be my everything

I admit I fell for you so badly
And I admit you make my senses wild
I know sometimes that I am looking foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be a fool as long as you are mine
Mine, just mine, just mine

I admit I fell for you so badly
And I feel so good
And I admit you make my senses wild

I know sometimes that I am acting foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be a fool as long as you are mine
Mine, just mine, just mine

Just mine
You make me shine
You are the light in my life

I admit I fell for you so badly
And I feel so good
And I admit you make my senses wild
I know sometimes that I am acting foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be a fool as long as you are mine
Mine, just mine, just mine

I admit I fell for you so badly
And I feel so good
And I admit you make my senses wild
I know sometimes that I am acting foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be a fool as long as you are mine
Mine, just mine, just mine
Just mine
