[Andy Abraham - Even If]

Your keeping me fascinated
No I ain't running all over town
I feel so intoxicated
I'm struggling to keep
My feet on the ground
I'm not playing girl
This ain't no game at all
And for the first time
I'm not looking for love
So come here baby
Listen to me
I just want cha
To believe me
Even if the world stops lovin
I could never stop lovin you
Even if the sun stops risin
I still wanna wake up with you
Even if my heart was breakin
I could never break your heart too
Even if all words lost their meaning
You would understand I love you
Your sensuality thrills melt strips me to my soul
As your reality cures me
Your lovin takes a hold
I'm barely in control
I'm not pretending girl
That ain't what's goin on
There's no room for lies
Ain't no room at all
So come here baby
Listen to me
I just want cha
To believe me
Even if the world stops lovin
I could never stop lovin you
Even if the sun stops risin
I still wanna wake up with you
Even if my heart was breakin
I could never break your heart too
Even if all words lost their meaning

You would understand I love you
Break it down break it down girl you gotta know
We got to break it down break it down it's
Time to feel the flow
Break it down break it down girl you gotta know
We got to break it down break it down it's
Time to feel the flow
Even if the world stops lovin
I could never stop lovin you
Even if the sun stops risin
I still wanna wake up with you
Even if my heart was breakin
I could never break your heart too
Even if all words lost their meaning
You would understand I love you
