When I'm feeling down
In this world of madness
You comfort all my sadness
You soothe away my pain
'Cause these are trying times
Filled with so much sorrow
I wonder if tomorrow
Will bring a brighter day

Why do the angels cry?
Why doesn't love survive?
Why do we all just pretend?
Why do the angels cry?
Innocent children die
When will it all ever end?
Ever end?

Close your eyes and dream
And visualize a rainbow
Oh, a place where you can pray for
Peace and harmony

Search your heart
And find a higher meaning
Let this be the start
A brand new beginning

Oh... talking 'bout peace and harmony
(Talking 'bout peace and harmony)

Why do the angels cry? (Why do they cry?)
Why doesn't love survive?
Why do we all just pretend?
Why do the angels cry? (Why do they cry?)
Innocent children die
When will it all ever end?
Ever end?
