Performed by: Sanda
Placing: 18th

As in a dream, love appeared
Swept me away and made me lose control
Like never before

As in a dream, love touched me
I felt how it touched the bottom
Of my very soul

Now I know I find the key to my heart
I just hope this ain't the dream
And that you are reality

I admit I fell for you so badly
And I admit you make my senses wild
I know sometimes I am looking foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be your fool as long as you are mine
Yes mine, just mine

It's good to be in love
It makes you touch the sky
A thousand times or more

It's good to admit
That my heart starts to race
When you walk through that door

Now I know you are the key to my heart
Just hope you're not the dream
And that you'll be my everything

I admit I fell for you so badly
And I admit you make my senses wild
I know sometimes I am looking foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be a fool as long as you are mine
Yes mine, just mine

I admit I fell for you so badly
And I feel so good
And I admit you make my senses wild
I know sometimes I might act and look foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be a fool as long as you are mine
Yes mine, just mine

Just mine
You make me shine
You are the light in my life

I admit I fell for you so badly
And I feel so good
And I admit you make my senses wild
I know sometimes I am looking foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be a fool as long as you are mine

Yes mine, just mine

I admit I fell for you so badly
And I feel so good
And I admit you make my senses wild
Mmm yeah
I know sometimes I might act and look foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be a fool as long as you are mine
Yes mine, just mine, alright
Mine, yes mine, just mine
Just mine
