As if here
It's hard, it's so hard
When longing in the light of the moon
Is here for a fleeting moment and gone so soon
With the tears not far behind..
And a song always comes along and makes you strong
A moment so fine, you're closer now.
Sometimes the breeze blows in that sweet familiar fragrance
Caressing you and listening to your song.

No starlight, but your light
With me now, with me now
As if for real
Just like old times.
Come along, come with me
The fire in your eyes and you
Come with me
Sometimes the wind blows in that sweet familiar
fragrance
Caressing you and listening.

No starlight, but your light
With me now, with me now
As if for real
Just like old times
