Time, would pass me by if I,
dad never asked you why You're eyes were open wide, that day you saw me cry

I'm not that kind of girl, who only dreams of pearls
Just give me wings of love
And make it real

'Cause I'm not afraid
Of a blade
That we need to cross today
But I'm scared
To be shared
By someone else

'Cause this is gonna be,
the day that we will meet
When heaven comes so down to Earth,
to say hello from Mars

My emotions take me high, they seem to reach the sky I still believe we try, to hit the ground or fly

Life is a mystery
Like a perfect harmony Noone knows that day when love, will come and set you free

'Cause this is gonna be,
When heaven comes so down to Earth,
to say hello from Mars
