Far away in a lost world
I hear your voice calling for heaven
Cast away, caught in memories
You must believe love will come through

I'll be your angel
In your darkest night
I'll be your destiny
Waiting by your side
I'll be the sunshine
When you're feeling blue
I'm always here for you

Comes a day, heart on fire
When all your faith seems to be missing
Go your way and you'll find there
A land of hope, a land of dreams

I'll be your angel
In your darkest night
I'll be your destiny
Waiting by your side
I'll be the sunshine
When you're feeling blue
I'm always here for you

And when you lose it all
And nothing seems right
Just keep holding on to me

I'll be your angel
In your darkest night
I'll be your destiny
Waiting by your side
I'll be the sunshine
When you're feeling blue
I'm always here for you
