I have tried every way,
to get to the heart of your soul
'Cause everything that you deny, could be there if you let me know I wanna heal every wound in you, to finally make you believe

High, over the rain
There's still a sun that could ease all your pain
I always try, holding your heart
Bringing you high

Try to make you see the light, when sorrow grow deep in your mind
And seize the day, not asking why, there is so much for you to find I wanna bring you the wings to fly, to never be broken again

Ohh
High, over the rain
There's still a sun that could ease all your pain
I always try, holding your heart
Bringing you high

I just wanna open your closing mind, your life can't be worth all your sacrifice
There is a light over you, please let it trough

High, over the rain
There's still a sun that could ease all your pain
I always try, holding your heart
Bringing you high

Ohh
High, over the rain
There's still a sun that could ease all your pain
I always try, holding your heart
Bringing you high
Bringing you high
