You're keeping me fascinated
No I ain't running all over town
I feel so intoxicated
I'm struggling to keep
My feet on the ground

I'm not playing girl
This ain't no game at all
And for the first time
I'm not looking for love

So come here baby
Listen to me
I just want you
To believe me

Even if the world stops lovin'
I could never stop lovin' you
Even if the sun stops risin'
I still wanna wake up with you

Even if my heart was breakin'
I could never break your heart too
Even if all words lost their meaning
You would understand I love you (yes I do)

Your sensuality thrills me, it strips me to my soul
As your reality cures me
Your lovin' takes a hold
I'm barely in control

I'm not pretending girl,
That ain't what's goin' on
There's no room for lies
Ain't no room at all
So come here baby
Listen to me
I just want you
To believe me

Even if the world stops lovin'

I could never stop lovin' you
Even if the sun stops risin'
I still wanna wake up with you

Even if my heart was breakin'
I could never break your heart too
Even if all words lost their meaning
You would understand I love you (yes I do)

Break it down, break it down, girl you gotta know
We gotta break it down, break it down , it's
Time to feel the flow
Break it down, break it down, girl you gotta know
We gotta break it down, break it down, it's
Time to feel the flow

Even if the world stops lovin'
I could never stop lovin' you
Even if the sun stops risin'
I still wanna wake up with you
Even if my heart was breakin'
I could never break your heart too

Even if all words lost their meaning
You would understand I love you
