The truth of life is the greatest gift
But I don't think, I can make it fit
And who would guess it would come to this
When I've tried everything

And I should know, but I can't explain
The endless noise sounding in my brain
Who would've thought that you could feel such pain
When you've tried everything

Ooh, you're a loser now
Yeah, you're a loser
Yeah, you're a loser now

La la la
La la la
La la la

I should be cool, but I'm burning hot
I should be good, but I fell apart
Don't look at me, now don't even start
'Cause I've tried everything
Yeah, I've tried everything

Ooh, you're a loser now
Yeah, you're a loser

Ooh, you're a loser now
Yeah, you're a loser now, now
