Put the blame on me
Put the blame on me

Take me to a dark room
And hug me to bits
I just wanna be kissed so badly
Right there on my lips

Put the blame on me
Put the blame on me

Why did you close your eyes
When I'm the one that's blind?
Why did you close your eyes?
That was too unkind

Where are you tonight, are you sleeping on your own?
I need to know where you are tonight
Are you sleeping on your very own?
Tell the one that's lying with you

To get right up and go back home
To get right up and go back home
To get right up to get back home, and go back home

To get right up and go back home
To get right up and go back home
To get right up and go back home

(Put the blame on me)
To get right up and go back home
To get right up and go back home

(Put the blame on me)
To get right up and go back home
To get right up and go back home

(Put the blame on me)
To get right up and go back home
To get right up and go back home
