You my friend have you seen the thing
I lost today
Have you seen my pain
You my friend have you stolen the thing
I lost today
Have you stolen my pain
You my friend I'm flying up here in the sky and there's one thing I can't deny I love you friend

You my friend have you seen the thing
I got today
Have you seen my love
You my friend you gave me the thing
I got today
You gave me love
You my friend I'm walking here on earth and now I don't have to search I got you friend

In the morning I wake up, make some tea catch the bus I'm rushing through life but you've made me slow down and smile
You made me see the sky
I can give you my life, my thoughts take it all I've been death and blind, egoistic and unkind
But now love's entering my mind You my friend please open up your door for me Can't you hear my call You my friend you're near me even when you're home in bed
I'm knocking on your door
You my friend I've seen you laugh and cry
and there's one thing I can't deny

I need you friend

Of course I need boys but I just see them as toys

I can talk to a wall, it will give so much more then a man
'Cause he will never understand That I can fall in love just like an ordinary girl and I can take him to my room make some love, but then,
I can't feel what I've done

You my friend I need you more than you'll ever know You my friend I've nver been writing and thinking like this before You my friend I'm dreaming every day
But there's one thing I can see clear
I love you riend
I know I'll grow old but I don't want to see the end
I know we will split up but I hope you want to be my friend
Well I'm your's to the end
