You oughta know by now that I don't wait around Drag my heels hold my breath and hang out underground
You think I think too much, I think we'll wait and see From here to there I'll take a piece of all that's in between

Never say never and don't wait forever
It's an open mind that sees that now is the time
To take a chance, take a shot, take control of the situation

(Ooo)
I can't stand around here telling you
About the things I've done and what I got to do So are you on the bus or not?
Cause we're leaving the station

Don't leave yourself behind and don't get in the way
(Tomorrow's coming fast to take away today)
Tomorrow's coming fast to take away today
You say I want too much, but I want you to see That if you want to come with me, you're gonna to have to leave

Never say never and don't wait forever
It's an open mind that sees that now is the time
To take a chance, take a shot, take control of the
situation

(Ooo)
I can't stand around here telling you
