(Susie, this is for you.)

You walk away
You turn around
You stomp your feet
And kiss the ground
And I should understand you so

Remove any good decreed to me
Oh I lived life so you should see what I already know

[Chorus x2]
You're a bitch and you'll always be
There's a bitch on every branch of your family tree
If bitchiness had numbers,
You'd be infinity

I'm too smooth
Now I'm too rough
Whatever it is,
It isn't good enough
For the one
Who has to have it her way

You roll your eyes,
You swing your hair
You throw your arms up in the air,
And make believe you don't hear what I say

[Chorus x2]

[Instrumental]

[Chorus x2]

Remove any good decreed to me
Oh I lived life,
So you should see what I
Already know
