I know a secret
Something still belongs to me
I'm not afraid of those who kill the body
For they cannot kill the soul

You may beat me down just denying the truth
But you cant kill the meaning
You

Dreams are illusions
They'll fade away before we can catch them
Promises may be broken
Dreams we'll forget
But what's burned in you cannot die

You may beat me down just denying the truth
But you cant kill the meaning
You

You may beat me down just denying the truth
But you cant kill the meaning
You
