I wanna give myself away why, why, why

At times I wish I was in eternal sleep,
Im only at peace when I can hold you in my dreams
Maybe little selfish, but I am not a creep
It seems that I treasure all the little things (can it be)
Then Ive come to realize what you mean to me!

(Chorus:)

You bring sunshine into my life
You take the clouds away
The rain away, the pain away for another day
I feel your love is all around me
Blessings of love have finally found me
But I still wait to find
No one by my side
When will the world stay calm around me?
Will the sun shine down on me?
When will I see if I know ever at times it seems like never?
When will the rain stop pouring on me?
When will I find someone to love me?
When will the clouds disappear, and I find you standing here?
