Fire will burn us all away
I can't wait to see new days
Rise your eyes and dare to ask what's up the sky
Who will tell me why?
We all wait like before
Where we'll never understand the fractions we were living for
There's a way that I've lost
I am standing at the center of a world that's goin on Fire will burn us all away

Try to find a god to pray
Despite all the city streets today still bleed Â...
We all wait like before
Where we'll never understand the causes we were fighting for
There's a way that I've lost
I am standing where a dream become the real life of my own
Perch?? Perch? continuo a credere? Perch? santificare me?
