Embrace the atmosphere
Save face but have your fill
Never mind the rules in here and don't believe 'em
I know you
You'll fall through
Replace your life with fear
Withdrawing your love here
I know you
You want to

You don't feel the absence... you won't see the pain

I'm taking a step back from inside
Forsaking the life that I once had
I've tried, I hate that you already do
I'm making a run from the dark side
Replacing night with the sunlight
I've tried, I hate that you already do

Separate your faults in life
And get used to blood-shot eyes
Never mind the sleepless nights, just follow your own fight
I know you
You'll fall through
Replace your fear with life
Withdrawing this spotlight
I know you
You'll want too

You don't feel the absence... you won't see the pain

I'm taking a step back from inside
Forsaking the life that I once had
I've tried, I hate that you already do
I'm making a run from the dark side
Replacing night with the sunlight
I've tried, I hate that you already do

Fuck you
For lying
For pointing and then hiding

You must be right, it must be true
Fuck me
For dreaming
For trying to find my meaning
What was I thinking, it's all for you

I'm taking a step back from inside
Forsaking the life that I once had
I've tried, I hate that you already do
I'm making a run from the dark side
Replacing night with the sunlight
I've tried, I hate that you already do
