It doesn't take much to see what you face inside when the fire is leaving
It doesn't take long to bleed when your heart grows cold
It's never too hard to be when your faith inside it's left to screaming
With everything push aside, no heart, no soul
Take my hand or let go

Chorus:

I'm left no choice we're leaving the black hole
So let's go destroy the obvious
I'm left no voice I live in your echo
So let's go destroy the obvious

It's a... you can live beneath
It's a place in time where fall time meaning
With everything beautiful turns sharp, grows cold
You the think you're the powerful
You the tear, you the H of the liar feeding
A life you can justify, where the dark won't show

Take my hand or let go

I know you're holding on to me
Your words won't let me go
I think you're... find it
When you find your hate to find you
When the feed is left to blinding you know

I know you're holding on to me
I flip the fire of control of everything
I know you're holding on to me
I feel the fire of controlling everything

[Chorus:]

I'm left no choice we're leaving the black hole
So let's go destroy the obvious
I'm left no voice I live in your echo
So let's go destroy the obvious
