"Good Enough"

The fight in me can raise a wall that I could climb for hours.

I was told that a long time ago and I don't want to let you fall to pieces

But don't let me fall to pieces that break apart for so many years.

I believe there's so much left in me...a defining moment

I woke up to self destruction.

It's hard to know that I wasn't good enough.

You're afraid of something, she told me one thing; I don't care who knows you

cuz you're not good enough for the phrase...

"Lets always stay together"

this faulty reasoning makes time goes by so slowly every day.

I stole this from the coffin where I buried most of my sins,

And now they're coursing through my veins just like the ocean,

Like careless waves that flow right through me.

I woke up to self destruction.

It's hard to know that I wasn't good enough.

You're afraid of something, she told me one thing; I don't care who knows you

cuz you're not good enough for the phrase...

I love you. But, I wont look the other way dear,

It's over dear but how can that be when you wont even talk to me,

I'll keep on holding my breath til it hurts.

I woke up to self destruction.

It's hard to know that I wasn't good enough.

You're afraid of something, she told me one thing; I don't care who knows you cuz you're not good enough for the phrase...I love you.
