You're falling asleep
I can feel you dreaming
Are you thinking of me?
Are you feeling the love?

I'm caught in between
The way it is, how it could be
I'll never believe
You wanted me to go

So sleep, love, just dream, love
And don't let it go
Just promise you won't
And I'll be home

I believe I'm falling apart again
Can't believe it's all my fault
And when I fall then you follow me in

I can see the future in the end
Can't believe it's finally come to this
I fall and you follow me in

I'm ready to leave
And I hear you whisper to me
Love hurts, sometimes it works
Sometimes you gotta let it go

But you gotta believe
If it takes your all then you're ready
It can never defeat what you want
If you wanna be with me

So sleep, love, just dream, love
And don't let it go
Just promise you won't
And I'll be home

I believe I'm falling apart again
Can't believe it's all my fault
And when I fall then you follow me in

I can see the future in the end
Can't believe it's finally come to this
I fall and you follow me in

Sleep, love, just dream, love
And don't let it go
Just promise you won't
I'll be home

I believe I'm falling apart again
Can't believe it's all my fault
And when I fall
Then you follow me in

I can see the future in the end
Can't believe it's finally come to this
I fall and you follow me in
I fall and you follow me in

Sleep, love, just dream, love
And don't let it go
Just promise you won't
I'll be home
