I dont know who but it wasnt me He wasnt all that you thought he'd be
And then broke your heart, girl you should have let me know coz you left it kind of hard for me to show Just how it feels when i'm next to you coz them other girls aint nothing next to you no doubt in my mind coz i know its you So tell me lady what you wanna do

Coz loving you
Is all that i know girl , why would i lie
If you want me to i'll give you just a little more time to decide
If i could be, your anything coz you to me are everything

[Chorus]
I'm talking to the mirror at 5am
Waiting for your call in the pouring rain sugar coated kiss and a lipstick mark there are 7 ways of breaking my heart Loaded conversation and bad Tv loosing our original chemistry
walking like i'm dancing on priceless art there are 7 ways of Breaking my heart

Turn of the Tv (Giiiiiiiiirl)
We need to talk about the way coz i thought i heard you say something bout not being there for you so what do i have to do to Show that i care for you i'm saying i could be the one no more playing girls for fun baby let me prove i got just what you need if you give me half a chance to romance you coz you make me feel complete

Coz loving you

Is all that i know girl , why would i lie
If you want me to i'll give you just a little more time to
decide
everything

[Chorus]

I'm talking to the mirror at 5am
Waiting for your call in the pouring rain
sugar coated kiss and a lipstick mark
there are 7 ways of breaking my heart
Loaded conversation and bad Tv
loosing our original chemistry
walking like i'm dancing on priceless art
there are 7 ways of
Breaking my heart

A couple of nights gone by she aint called yet and i dont know why could it be i didnt give enough attention or was it Something i said or didnt mention slow down to damn fast bounce with another chick with a fine ass not me, got the other Girl on hold i was on line 2 she was going all cold

Coz loving you girl
Is all that i know, why would i lie
If you want me to i'll give you just a little more time to
everything

[Chorus]

Waiting for your call in the pouring rain
