Wanna keep you from breakin wanna keep you from shakin wanna keep you from keepin
you down

Wanna keep you from sinkin wanna keep you from drinkin sometimes Wanna keep you from keepin
you down

Ringin in my head
All the things you've said
All the things you've done
I wish I could compromise but theres only one way to go and im goin alone

Im goin alone

your self-help book shelf is full now your pictures are about to be pulled down without regard for a broken heart its another year

ringing in my head

Wanna be with you tonight
Wanna be with you tonight
No i know it isnt right

cuz i love the way that you shock-shock-shock me follow me to my house and then you rock-rock-rock me wanna see your eyes wide not so shut the queen be cool dont stop keep up livin the city can be dyin' if you dont got a grip take a sip from my molotov mug wanna keep you from keepin you down pick yourself up off the ground

come on girl

I wish i could close my eyes and somehow make it all alright
but i know thers only one way to go

Miss the way that you shock-shock-shock me
completely cool dont stop keep up livin in the city, cuz your dyin if you dont
