Summer breeze tonight, another day is over
Reach up and turn out the light
And say goodnight to all my brothers
All kinds of frustration rushing over your feet
Sky blue and sweet sensation, I want to feel complete

Time will heal me, time will save my soul
Time will heal me, time will make me whole
Time will heal me, time will save my soul
Time will heal me, time will make me whole

Wake up and get on the road
We decided to make a living
You go to work, we do another show
Is everything now forgiven?

I see the side of a mountain rising
It's looking good to me
And I can feel the sunshine shining
Shine all over me, I can finally see

Time will heal me, time will save my soul
Time will heal me, time will make me whole
Time will heal me, time will save my soul
Time will heal me, time will make me whole

I wouldn't want to take my love
I would not want to take my love away
Take my love

I wouldn't want to take my love
I would not want to take my love away
Take my love

Time will heal me, time will save my soul
Time will heal me, time will make me whole
Time will heal me, time will save my soul
Time will heal me, time will make me whole

Time will heal me, time will save my soul
Time will heal me, time will make me whole
