"Slow Down"

Visit "Slow Down" on MotoLyrics.com

It's a complicated thing
Cause just when you thought you might have won,
You find out that you've just begun to see
What it all means
You fall down then get up again,
Or find out that your only friend is gone
So your letting it go
And while your watching it float
You just wish that you were there
Sometimes
You find it hard to tell what's wrong from right
But you wont if you
(Chorus)
Slow down
Cause there's nothing wrong
So just know now
You'll be twice as strong
Erase the lines, press rewind, pass the time
Ask questions that you'll realize,
Have answers you are never gonna find
So just let it all go
And as your watching it float
Imagine that your up there
But you're here
You're everyone but not at the same time
And now you know so
(Chorus)
