Am I inside out or upside down
Or just some experiment gone wrong?
Did I invade the planet like sci-fi
And take on some freakish form?
Is this segregation justified?
Cause to the world I dont fit the norm
Ive been patronized and pushed aside
My life just simply ignored
But Im here to stay
So be forewarned
Pre-Chorus:
And I lay and wait
For something to take me away from this place
Chorus:
The time has come for me
For me to stop living for the world
Inside I know
That I have been called for such more
And I will not let it waste away
His call on me will not be in vain

I will change this world for what I want
Cause I dont want to buy what Ive been sold
Dont you avoid the masses or run and hide
Cause outcast is growing old
This intimidation will subside
Cause for the call we must be bold
Dont you run away
No, never fold
Pre-Chorus
Chorus
I have so much left to live
Cause You gave Your life
I have so much left to give
Cause You gave Your life
I have so much left to live
Cause You gave Your life
I have so much left to give
Cause You gave Your life
I have so much left to live
Cause You gave Your life
Chorus
