I see stars and the sky
Will they shine for you
So will I let your light shine in me
In the trees of the earth
They stand tall and true
So will I let my standing of the tree

Cause every single breath that's in my chest is for you
To glorify your name
I wanna scream your name at the top of my lungs
Until there's none

Cause every beat of my heart beats straight from the night
And I'm falling away to where it feels the night
At the top my of my lungs
And now I'm letting things out tonight

Lift my voice
So strong to show that
I belong to here
Chase the noise
And let it out
Let into your ear
