She is livin far away from a lonely man in the San Francisco Bay
He is dreamin hard of a girl all claid in bad plaid and mad at the whole world
All of her friends they are blessed impressed intelligent freaks
All of them are six feet tall, all of them are hateful to me
She sleeps alone and wet with her phone in her face all tied up in her old bed She walks alone everyday up and down the rainy streets in her own weird way
All of her friends they are blessed impressed
intelligent freaks
All of them are six feet tall, all of them are hateful to
me
Hateful, yeah they're hateful to me
Hateful, yeah they're hateful to me
Hateful, yeah they're hateful to me
Hateful Getting very hateful
