Last train now boarding for new york
Last chance that i will call you mine
And if we're ever under the same stars
Will you still wish on mine?
Memories from a time when i was not alone
A place where you were my home
Now these days come and go without sunlight
Oh well.. i guess i'll see you in my dreams again tonight
Will you still remember me now that you're with her?
500 miles is only a 9 hour drive
I'll pick up the bill if you'll just
Pick up my line
