So that's the kind of guy you are
Promise me the world and stars
And believing all your lies
My heart couldnt use my mind
And im sorry
Im sorry that i help your hand too tight
And im sorry
Im sorry that i wanted you here tonight
And if you look in these eyes you'll see
How youve dissappointed me
And even though this blindfold covers
I can see you're like all the others
(the ones that used me up and threw me to the ground Well it feels like im growin up between the lost and the found)
And im sorry
Im sorry that i ever let you hurt me
Im sorry
YOU never said "im sorry"
